LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated January 5th, 1949.

E. K. DEBECK,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

MISCELLANEOUS.

"COMPANIES ACT."

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Pacific Petroleum, Ltd. (Non-Personal Liability)," has this day converted itself under section 67 of the "Companies Act" from a specially limited company into a limited company under the said Act, and that:—

(1) The name of the Company now is "Pacific Petroleum, Ltd.":

(2) The objects of the Company now are:—

(a) To carry on any one or more of the businesses of prospecting for, producing, dealing in, transporting, storing, distributing, and manufacturing petroleum, oils, gases, ores, and other minerals or mineral substances and the products, by-products, or derivatives thereof, and to acquire, produce, hold, operate, use, dispose of, and otherwise deal in and with the said substances and products, and drilling, pumping, mining, milling, reducing, refining, smelting, separating, absorbing, and other plants, machinery, equipment, or apparatus for producing, manufacturing, or otherwise working or turning to account such substances and products and for recovering, saving, transporting, and marketing the same or any part thereof:

(b) To carry on the business of contractors for drilling, opening, operating, and the working of oil wells, mines, and mineral claims:

(c) To acquire by purchase, lease, concession, licence, exchange, or otherwise rights to or interests in lands, mines, wells, claims, and places which may seem to the Company capable or possibly capable of affording a supply of petroleum, carbon oils, gas, ores, or other mineral substances, either absolutely or conditionally, and to hold, lease, develop, operate, manage, control, place under licence, sell, dispose of, and otherwise deal with the same or any part thereof or any interest therein:

(d) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise timber lands, leases, or claims, rights to cut timber, surface rights, and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, patents, patent rights and concessions, and other real or personal property:

(e) To acquire, construct, erect, lay down, drill, maintain, enlarge, alter, work, and use all such lands, buildings, erections, derricks, easements, gas and other works, plants, refineries, storage, wells, reservoirs, machinery, plant, stock pipes, pipe lines, pumping stations, and plants, lamps, motors, fittings, meters, apparatus, equipment, material, and things and to supply all materials, products, and things as may be necessary, incident, or convenient in connection with the acquisition, production, use, storage, regulation, measurement, supply, piping, and distribution, purchase, and sale or other dealing in all or any of the products of the Company:

(f) To acquire, underwrite, hold, sell on commission, or otherwise dispose of and deal in and with the shares, stocks, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any company, government, public body, or authority; to purchase, acquire, hold, sell, exchange, discount, and deal in and with mortgages, agreements for sale, contracts, options, leases, and other documents of title or securities or interests in or to land, real estate, mines, minerals, petroleum and (or) natural gas rights, accounts, choses in action, personal property or chattels and to lend money on the security of any such documents and to lend or advance money to its shareholders or to persons having dealings with the Company, either with or without security as it shall see fit, and generally to carry on all or any part of the businesses of a holding investment company:

(g) To carry on any one or more of the businesses of metallurgists, mining engineers, petroleum engineers and geologists, building and general contractors, farm, branch, timber and mine owners, insurance, land, rental, general and financial agents, managers and brokers; to take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operation of any company or undertaking and to guarantee and otherwise assist in the performance of contracts or obligations of any such company or undertaking and generally for any of the above purposes to carry on businesses, financiers, or financial agents:

(h) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company or companies having objects altogether or in part similar to those herein enumerated or any of them and to take shares therein:

(i) To pay for any lands, businesses, properties, rights, claims, privileges, concessions, or other assets acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligation of the Company, either wholly or in part, by issue of shares, debentures, or other securities of the Company credited as fully or partly paid:

(j) To invest the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as the directors may from time to time determine:

(3) The liability of the members is, subject to section 74 of the said Act, limited in accordance with section 24 of the said Act.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-seventh day of June, one thousand nine hundred and fifty.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

Approved and ordered this 12th day of July, A.D. 1950.

GORDON McG. SLOAN,
Administrator.

AT THE EXECUTIVE COUNCIL CHAMBER, VICTORIA.

PRESENT:

The Honourable Mr. JOHNSON, in the Chair.

Mr. EYRES.

Mr. WISMER.

Mr. KENNEY.

Mr. ANSCOMB.

Mr. BOWMAN.

Mr. MACDONALD.

Mr. CARSON.

To His Honour the Administrator in Council:

THE undersigned has the honour to recommend that, pursuant to the "Tourist Camp Regulation Act," being chapter 338 of the "Revised Statutes of British Columbia, 1948," the regulations made under said Act by Order in Council No. 1368, approved the 8th day of August, 1945, be amended in accordance with the draft amendments attached hereto.

Section A is amended by the addition of the following:—

" 'Accommodation' includes any cabin or part of a cabin or any convenience or facility provided for the accommodation of the public at a tourist camp:

" 'Operator' includes the owner, lessor, or any person who acts as the manager of a tourist camp:

" 'Rental unit' means any cabin or part of a cabin which may be used for the accommodation of the public at a tourist camp and for which rental may be charged:

" 'Room' means any space set apart for living or sleeping purposes in a cabin whether fully enclosed or not."

Section B is amended by striking out Regulations 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7A, and substituting the following:—

" 2. No person shall operate a tourist camp unless he is the holder of a subsisting licence issued in respect of said tourist camp.

"(a) Every operator of a tourist camp situated in a municipality shall apply to the Licensing Authority for a licence for the accommodation and shall pay to the Commissioner a fee of one dollar.

"(b) Every operator of a tourist camp situated in unorganized territory shall apply to the Licensing Authority for a licence to operate the premises and shall pay to the Commissioner a licence fee of three dollars.

" 3. All licences issued after May 31st, in any year, shall subsist until May 31st of the following year.

" 4. Every application for a licence shall be on a form to be supplied by the Licensing Authority, and the applicant shall furnish all information required by that authority.

" 5. Any person desiring to build or establish a new tourist camp or to use existing buildings as a tourist camp shall first make application in writing to the Licensing Authority.

"(a) Where such application is approved, the Licensing Authority may issue a permit which shall provide that the accommodation for which the application is received be constructed within such time period as may be determined by the Licensing Authority. Such a permit may be issued without fee.

“(b) Permit-holders shall advise the Licensing Authority when the accommodation is ready for inspection, and no permit issued by the Licensing Authority shall entitle the holder to offer accommodation to the public until a licence is obtained.

“6. The Licensing Authority may refuse to grant a licence in any area where it is of the opinion that the public interest of the Province would not be served by the operation of the tourist camp in respect of which an application is made.

“(a) The Licensing Authority may cancel any licence issued for any tourist camp which has not operated as such for at least sixty consecutive days within the two-year period for which a licence or registration had been granted immediately prior to the date of cancellation.

“(b) The Licensing Authority may limit the amount of accommodation covered by any one licence.”

Section E, Regulation 13, is amended by striking out all words after the word “camp” in the third line, and substituting the following: “and no operator of a camp shall provide or expose for common use, or permit to be so provided or exposed or allow for common use, any cup, glass, or other receptacle used for drinking purposes.”

Section F is amended to read “Sewage-disposal and Plumbing.”

Section F is further amended by striking out Regulation 17, and substituting the following:—

“17. (a) All plumbing and drainage shall be constructed and maintained in accordance with all plumbing regulations from time to time in force.

“(b) The operator of every camp shall dispose of the sewage therefrom in such manner that it will not create a nuisance or pollute any stream, lake, or other body of water, or contaminate a water-supply, bathing-place, or shell-fish growing area.

“(c) All sewage systems and sewage-disposal facilities shall be installed and maintained in accordance with the requirements of the Health Branch, Department of Health and Welfare of British Columbia.”

Section G is amended to read “Toilets and Lavatory Facilities.”

Section G is further amended by striking out clauses (a) to (g) of Regulation 18, and substituting the following:—

“18. (a) Toilets and lavatory facilities shall be at a distance of not more than one hundred feet from any rental unit.

“(b) Toilets and lavatories shall be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition.

“(c) Toilets shall be water-flushed in every case where the installation of water-flushed toilets is practicable at reasonable cost.

“(d) All water-flushed toilets shall be connected to a public sewer system or to a septic tank and ground absorption system, constructed and installed in accordance with the requirements of the Health Branch, Department of Health and Welfare of British Columbia.

“(e) Where water-flushed toilets are not used, the toilets shall be so constructed and maintained:—

“(i) That flies, insects, rats, or small domestic animals cannot gain access to the waste materials:

“(ii) That the surface or ground-water cannot enter the pit or vault; and

“(iii) That the waste material in the privy cannot contaminate a water-supply or otherwise create a nuisance.

“(f) The number of toilets required shall be based upon the following table:—

Number of Persons for whom Accommodation is Available at Camp.	Minimum Number of Water-closets or Privy-seats.	Minimum Number of Lavatories or Wash-basins.
1-7	1	1
8-15	2	2
16-25	3	3
26-35	4	4
36-50	5	5
Over 50	One water-closet or privy-seat and one lavatory or wash-basin for each additional fifteen persons.”

Section I is amended by striking out clauses (a) to (k) of Regulation 21, and substituting the following:—

“(a) All accommodation shall be of sound construction and shall be weather-proof:

“(b) Every living-room and bedroom shall have a minimum floor area of 90 square feet and a minimum cubic space of 720 cubic feet:

“(c) All floors not built on a solid concrete or rat-proof foundation shall be built with a clearance of at least twelve inches between the surface of the ground and the under-side of the floor-joists:

“(d) All floors shall be constructed of tongue and grooved material or other type of flooring that has been approved by the Licensing Authority:

“(e) Interior walls shall be of smooth-surface lumber or of other material approved by the Licensing Authority:

“(f) Interior walls shall be so constructed that they may always be kept in a thoroughly clean condition:

“(g) Every living-room, sleeping-room, dining-room, and kitchen shall have one or more windows having an aggregate area equivalent to not less than ten per cent. of the floor area, and window area equivalent to not less than five per cent. of the floor area shall be fitted to open:

“(h) Every bathroom, shower-room, and toilet-room shall:—

“(i) Have one or more windows having an aggregate area of not less than three square feet with at least one-third of the window area fitted to open; or

“(ii) Be equipped with mechanical apparatus to provide a minimum of four complete changes of air per hour:

“(i) All windows fitted to open shall open to the outside without obstruction:

“(j) There shall be no toilet in a building containing sleeping, eating, or other living accommodation unless the toilet is water-flushed:

“(k) Every room containing a toilet, bath, shower, or lavatory shall have a floor finished with a smooth surface and shall be provided with lighting facilities:

“(l) Every shower compartment shall have a floor of or finished with concrete or equally impervious material.”

Section J is amended by striking out Regulation 24, and substituting the following:—

“24. Every operator of a tourist camp shall cause all outside openings in the said camp to be effectively screened unless other effective means are employed to prevent the entrance of flies.”

Section J is further amended by striking out the word “cabin” in the first line of clause (a) of Regulation 25, and substituting the words “rental unit.”

Section J is further amended by striking out clause (c) of Regulation 25.

Section J is further amended by striking out Regulation 26, and substituting the following:—

"26. No operator shall permit a room to be used for sleeping accommodation for one or two persons unless it shall have a floor area of at least ninety square feet and cubic space of not less than seven hundred and twenty cubic feet. Sleeping accommodation for more than two persons shall have an additional floor area of at least sixty square feet and an additional cubic space of four hundred and eighty cubic feet for each person more than two."

Section K is amended by adding the following immediately after paragraph 28:—

"28A. Every operator shall establish rates for each rental unit. Such rates shall be posted conspicuously in the unit to which they apply."

Section K is further amended by adding the following immediately as Regulation 29A:—

"29A. All registration records shall be kept at the tourist camp where entries are made and shall not be removed or transferred to any other place. They shall be handed over to new owners upon transfer of any properties coming under the provision of these regulations."

Section M, Regulation 32, is amended by striking out the word "cabin" in the first line and substituting the words "rental unit."

Regulation 32 is further amended by striking out the words from "prescribed by" to the end of the paragraph, and in substituting the following: "made pursuant to the 'Health Act' in respect of the disease in question."

Section M is further amended by adding the following regulation:—

"32A. Where facilities are provided for the serving of food or drink, every operator shall comply with the regulations made pursuant to the 'Health Act' relating to eating and drinking places."

Section N is amended by adding the following as clause (e) of Regulation 33:—

"(e) It shall be the responsibility of the operator to see that clause (o) of this regulation is observed within the boundaries of his tourist camp."

Section P is amended by striking out the words "cabin or other building" in the second line, and substituting the word "accommodation."

Section P is further amended by striking out Regulation 37, and substituting:—

"37. Every operator who operates a tourist camp other than in accordance with the conditions prescribed by these regulations, or who fails to observe any of these regulations, shall be guilty of an offence, liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than two hundred and fifty dollars."

Section Q is amended by adding to Regulation 38 the words "or to premises licensed under the Liquor Control Act."

Dated this 11th day of July, A.D. 1950.

L. H. EYRES,
Minister of Trade and Industry.
